

COOKIES

A cookie is a small piece of information that a website requests your browser to store on your computer, mobile device, or other electronic devices through which a user accesses the internet, in order to help the user navigate the website efficiently, perform certain functions, and allow the website to "remember" the user's actions or preferences over time.

HOW DO WE USE COOKIES?

The website www.stadio.ro uses cookies primarily for the following purposes: to remember individual user actions and preferences; to ensure the proper functioning of the website and enhance its performance; to help users perform various activities without having to re-enter information when navigating from one page to another or when returning to the site later. We will not use cookies for any other purposes than those shown in this policy.

HOW DO YOU CONTROL COOKIES?

Most browsers support cookies, but users can configure their browsers to refuse them and can delete them at any time. You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish. You can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can configure most browsers to prevent cookies from being stored. However, if you do this, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work. You can block/disable cookies in your web browser settings. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies), you may not be able to access our site fully or partially as some cookies may be strictly necessary for the functioning of the website.

WHAT COOKIES DO WE USE ON THIS WEBSITE?

- Analytical/performance cookies, which allow us to recognize and count visitors and learn how visitors navigate our website. This type of cookie helps us improve the user browsing experience on our website so that they can find the information they are looking for more easily.

They help us to:

- a) Estimate our audience size and usage pattern;
- b) Increase the speed with which search results are displayed;

You can disable these cookies if you wish. Disabling these cookies may lead to a lower quality experience when browsing our website.

- Targeting cookies, which record your visit to our website, the pages you have viewed, the articles you have viewed and the links you have followed. These cookies are used to make the information displayed on our website more relevant to your interests, which we have identified based on the pages/links visited and articles read (for this purpose, we may share this information with third parties).

They help us to:

- a) store information about your preferences, allowing us to personalize our site for you and provide you with information that is targeted to your individual interests;

- Web beacons, which are usually used in combination with cookies for email tracking and page tagging for web analytics purposes.

You can disable these cookies if you wish. Please note that third parties (including, for example, external service providers such as web traffic analysis providers used for marketing purposes) may also use cookies and/or may access the data collected by cookies on the website.

The applicable details regarding third-party cookies and/or third-party access to data collected by cookies on our website are as follows: Google Analytics Cookies. Our website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google. Google Analytics uses cookie files to help a website analyze how you use the site.
